Cello x Cello x Cello Workshop in Cello Ensemble with Albert Roman

This class is designed for students, cellists, and enthusiastic amateurs. It will focus on learning the literature for cello ensemble and promoting the art of playing together, introducing various forms of improvisation and, in the evenings, playing together in the cello-orchestra. To begin with, groups will be organized according to the playing level and wishes of the participants. For the improvisations Non-European instruments will be available. The workshop will be opened by a common dinner on July 9, 2016 at 6 pm and the closing concert will be on July 15, 2016 at 8:30 pm

Albert Roman, a native of St. Moritz, Switzerland, began playing cello at an early age and studied with such renowned cellists as André Navarra, Pierre Fournier, Mstislav Rostropovitch, and Janós Starker. Two first prizes in international music competitions marked the beginning of a busy career, over the course of which he has given concerts and master classes throughout Europe, Asia, and the United States. He is particularly interested in contemporary music and accordingly has premiered cello works. For his efforts and accomplishments in promoting talented young cellists in China, he received the "Friendship Award" of the People's Republic of China. He is a guest professor at the music academies of Beijing, Shanghai, Wuhan, and Xi'an, leads the Swiss China Cello Orchestra and is Artistic Director of the Chesa da Cultura on Lake St. Moritz. Tastefully appointed rooms give a beautiful view of the broad and sunny valley of the Engadine on top of the Swiss Alps. A music hall and a state-of-the-art sound studio are available for classes and concerts. The Chesa da Cultura has hosted numerous master classes, workshops, and seminars with artists such as Oscar Ghiglia, Sofia Gubaidulina, Wilfried Hiller, Klaus Huber, Gary Karr, Rudolf Kelterborn, Enrico Onofri, Miklós Perényi, Wolfgang Rihm, Hopkinson Smith and Maurice Steger a.o.
